

As a benefit of being a client of Bankers Insurance, SESCO Management Consultants is a powerful tool in your human resource toolbox. SESCO is dedicated to providing clients with timely, one-stop-shop human resource and management consulting to help answer questions and provide practical resources.

Receive the following services free of charge:

Answers to questions regarding topics such as ACA, FMLA, wage-hour, and terminations.

The SESCO report, SESCO's bimonthly newsletter.

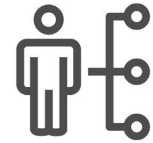

Email alerts, keeping you on top of current news affecting your business.

Regional meetings and seminars, to keep you updated on the ever-changing human resource and employment laws.

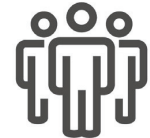

Additional projects and resources available at discounted rates.

About SESCO:

Since 1945, SESCO has provided professional human resource consulting services to clients throughout the United States. Their goal is to become an invaluable part of every client's management team, whether it be handling a difficult termination, coaching a leader who displays potential, developing an affordable and effective compensation system, assisting with governmental compliance, or representing the client before the government when being investigated. Their team of consultants are committed to minimizing liability while achieving excellence in your workplace.

SESCO exclusively represents management

The oldest full service human resource and employee relations consulting firm in America

SESCO represents thousands of clients in all 50 states

1.800.764.4127
Talk to a SESCO Consultant today!

Your SESCO Human Resource Toolbox

- Training
- Compensation Systems
- Employee Satisfaction Surveys
- Affirmative Action Programs
- Recruiting and Retaining Employees
- Employee Handbooks
- EEOC Investigations and Representation
- Human Resources Compliance Assessment
- Wage-Hour Investigations and Representation
- Federal and State Posters
- Required Employee Forms
- Job Descriptions